

HUHEZI becomes a full member of ETEN

Jan 08, 2008

At the end of November 2006 HUHEZI (Faculty of Humanities and Education) of Mondragon University became a full member the European Teacher Education Network ETEN. HUHEZI is the only faculty from the Basque Country and the Spanish state to be in this network.

ETEN was founded in 1988 in Denmark, with the dual objective of promoting team work in student and staff mobility and team research. There are 52 member universities and organisations, all of whom are education specialists and come from Belgium, Denmark, England, the Faroe Islands, Finland, Israel, Lithuania, Macedonia, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Sweden and the USA.

