

The Business Faculty (Enpresagintza) holds a training seminar in Cooperativism for the district of Seodaemun-Seoul (Korea)

Feb 15, 2013

9 people from the district of Seodaemun-Seoul followed a training course on Mondragon and Cooperativism at the Business Faculty of Mondragon University. The mayor of the district of Seodaemun Mr. Moon Seok Jin was also part of the team.

The main objective of this short-course was to get a good in-depth knowledge of the cooperativism in Mondragon, its origin and evolution. Seodaemun district has a strategic objective: to revitalise the existing cooperatives in the district and also to set-up 100 coops more, in the same district.

Please, see more pictures here:

<http://www.flickr.com/photos/enpresagintza/sets/72157632769520187/with/8475392035/>

