

The Business Faculty of Mondragon University offers a training program to a Korean Cooperative called Happy Bridge.

Feb 16, 2015

The Business Faculty of Mondragon University has provided a training program in Organizational and Management Model of the Mondragon Corporation to Korean Happy Bridge.

The training course on the model of the Mondragon Corporation has established the following objectives:

- Meet the organizational structure and functioning of Mondragon Corporation.
- Understanding the mechanisms developed in intercooperation in Mondragon Cooperative Experience.
- Deepen the educational system and partners, managers and employees training in the Corporation.
- Meet the systems and tools to promote innovation in Mondragon Corporation.

The course has had a practical approach and combined training sessions with technical visits to cooperatives and organizations. The training program has evolved from January 26 to February 13 in Oñati campus of the Faculty of Business of Mondragon University. Happy Bridge has set up a group called "Strategy and study team". This team has two main objectives:

- Make proposals for innovation in Happy Bridge's business model.
- Designing a proposal for setting up a cooperative group in the cooperative Happy Bridge.

With this dual objective has raised the realization of this intensive three weeks learning journey in the Business Faculty of Mondragon University.

