

Rowing course in Donostia

Jun 07, 2017

Students of KOENNA team company have participated in a rowing course this morning in Donostia. Firstly, they have heard to some explanation about how is rowing all over the world and a bit of the history of this sport. Later, they started practising in a river simulator, just to have some skills for the real rowing in a river.

Finally, they row in Urumea river and have a lot of fun!
