

The Erasmus students organized a goodbye party before going back home

Dec 23, 2008

The students from the second edition of the Erasmus programme who were studying for four months at HUHEZI, The Faculty of Humanities and Education at Mondragon University, have returned home. But before doing so, they organized a goodbye party with lots of tasty food. This second edition there were 5 students Teacher Training and 2 in Media Studies.

altogether, 3 in

None of them knew Basque or Spanish, so English was their language of communication. Four of their subjects were taken along with our students, and during their stay here they have had a student-companion from the faculty to help them integrate

The students of Teacher Training carried out teaching practice in some schools around Mondragon, whilst the students from Media Studies were in EITB in Bilbao, the main communications company in the Basque country. Julia Barnes and Joxe Aranzabal have been the academic coordinators for their stay.

The students who took part in the second Erasmus programme at HUHEZI were:

- Sara Hansen. University College Copenhagen, Denmark. Teacher Training.
- Louise Zwisler. University College Copenhagen, Denmark. Teacher Training.
- Chiara Luisetto. KHL University College, Belgium. Teacher Training.
- Saskia Kamphuis. Windesheim University, Netherlands. Media Studies.
- Tieme Hermans. Windesheim University, Netherlands. Media Studies.
