

Arrival of first group of Erasmus students for 2014-2015

Sep 08, 2014

The first group of Erasmus students have just arrived at the Faculty of Humanities and Education for the academic year 2014-2015. In the first semester, there are nine students from Poland, Estonia, Turkey, Switzerland and the Netherlands, who will take part in the International Program organised by the Faculty of Humanities and Education (Teacher Education. International Programme. Autumn).

They will attend classes in the 3rd and 4th year of the Education degree programme and also carry out teaching practice in local schools and in Vitoria-Gasteiz.

The students arrive in two groups during the year, in the autumn and in the spring. In the last academic year 2013-2014, in total, there were 17 Erasmus students at the campuses in Aretxabaleta and Eskoriatza.

In the first semester nine Erasmus students come.
