

Official opening of the academic year at Mondragon University

Sep 19, 2013

In the presence of the Chancellor of Mondragon University, the Autonomous government minister for Education, the Vice-president and the Secretary General of Mondragon University, yesterday the Lehendakari (president of the autonomous government of the Basque Country) inaugurated the 2013-2014 academic year at Mondragon University.

The celebration was held in the Faculty of Humanities and Education Sciences in the campus of Eskoriatza, and was attended by political and academic authorities as well as workers and collaborators of the university.

Among other items, mention was made of the new degree courses which Mondragon University has launched this course, of the increase in enrolments for this year and the new campus sites both in Aretxabaleta and Donostialdea (ORONA IDeO Innovation City) and in Bilbao (Bilbao Berrikuntza Faktoria).

