

350 students have already started the new course in the Basque Culinary Center leading up to the first graduating promotion.

Sep 12, 2014

This year the first promotion in gastronomics and alimentation will come out with a college degree in Spain. Since 2011, The Basque Culinary Center has trained academically the new professionals that in the future will manage kitchens all around the world and guide the food industry.

\(Read more\)

