

Mike Neary and Katia Valenzuela visited MONDRAGON UNIVERSITY

Sep 22, 2016

Professor Mike Neary from Lincoln University and Ph.D. student Katia Valenzuela from the University of Nottingham visited MONDRAGON UNIVERSITY from 12 to 17 September.

The purpose of the visit was to investigate the cooperative model of governance and leadership of MU and its relationship with the community.

This research is funded by the Leadership Foundation for Higher Education and aims to analyse alternative models of university governance.
